

Here's a new bridge between the sexes it's called Private Arrangements

Modern dating sites haven't discovered how to bridge the gap between the sexes. As esteemed author, John Gray, put it, Men are from Mars and Women are from Venus.

Many women whether in a relationship or not, get bored. They're seeking company, excitement and more. They've tried dating sites but encounter one disappointment after another. "There seems to be a lot of weirdos out there" is a comment often heard.

Men too are disillusioned and have been turning to adult sections in local newspapers and online, whilst also working out how to navigate the intricacies of interpersonal exchanges once they meet someone.

The end game might be the same, but honest connections are not being made. So how do you bridge this quiet desperation and great divide to at least the same planet and a place of mutual understanding and benefits?

A new website called Private Arrangements has the answer. privatearrangements.co.nz represents mature adults, 40 to 75, who know what they want, and where everyone's privacy is protected.

A great benefit for members of Private Arrangements is the site's owner travels the country to personally meet every person that joins the site. This ensures all candidates are properly screened and that everyone is protected, including their privacy, and also ensures that the quality of members is high.

This information is only made available to men who have been properly screened for their social skills and personal demeanour and who pay a $600 membership to join the site. This helps to keep the site exclusive and ensures quality candidates.

Men get access to the "woman next door", who are open to all types of adventures. It's a win-win for both sexes.

Women want what men want, and as the name suggests, both needs can be met at Private Arrangements. Forget the disappointment and pressure of dealing with weird and uneventful dating sites. Private Arrangements caters to people who know exactly what they want and get it.

Members only give out as much information as they're comfortable sharing. Some men and women have other lives they need to protect, so Private Arrangements is the perfect solution, because members are honest with their intentions, everyone knows the score and is happy with the arrangements they make with each other.

Private Arrangements is so much more than a dating site. Say goodbye to the excessive effort, too many dinners with very little satisfaction or reward. With Private Arrangements, candour can be experienced quickly because each connection starts out as a commercial relationship. This is intentional, as it breaks the ice and lets both parties relax quickly and see where things lead. Through banter and negotiation, this can involve pleasure, adventure and more. All for very little risk, time and money.

A private arrangement... or two could change your life in more ways than one. You could continue to struggle with the dating scene or get down to business and bridge the gap with Private Arrangements.

Men get access to the "woman next door", that are open to all types of adventures. Guys, are you seeking a mutually beneficial relationship with an older woman?, or a temporary encounter without jealousy and/or consequences? It's a win-win for both sexes.
